

KIRSTY'S KRONICLE

RHEA WELLS: AUTHOR

At Tuesday's meeting we welcomed guest speaker Rhea Wells to pre-launch her new book "A Way to Go" ahead of its official launch at the Burnside Library on April 6th. "A Way to Go" is a heart-warming memoir of the relationship between Rhea and her daughter Rebecca, and their adventures together as Rebecca was growing up.

Rhea spoke about the process of writing and self-publishing the book with the assistance of hired editors. Rhea reminded us that after overcoming a number of obstacles that at age 62 it's never too late to write your first book. She went on to read a funny excerpt from the book; taking 6 year old Rebecca on an "extreme" virtual skiing adventure at a fairground in Vienna.

Rhea's reading whetted our appetites for more, and many club members bought copies of her book (ahead of the official launch, but don't tell anyone). Good Luck Rhea.

The book is also available on Amazon and Kobo and at several bookstores around Adelaide:

RHEA AND KIRSTY

BUSINESS NETWORKING AND DRINKS

We had a great turnout at our Business Networking Drinks, held on Tuesday evening at The Libertine by Louis on Magill Road, Stepney, in conjunction with the Rotary Club of Kent Town.

Members from both clubs, as well as many local business owners and employees, came to enjoy a casual drink, some fantastic pizza and cheese platters, and enjoy the networking opportunity.

We also heard a great presentation from guest speaker Andrew Leunig, Futurist and Business Model Innovation Expert, and I'm sure many of us have re-thought opportunities in our businesses since hearing him speak. One of Andrew's key messages was see what's working in your business and hone that that before attempting to fix everything. See <http://leunig.net.au/people/andrew-leunig/>

We'll be looking to host similar events in future, so if you have any feedback, please let me know.

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of a worthy enterprise and in particular to encourage and foster:

The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service.

High ethical standards in business and professions: the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations: and the dignifying by every Rotarian of their occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

The application of the ideal service by every Rotarian to their personal, business and community life.

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional people united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR WAY TEST

The Four Way Test of the things we think, say or do:

Is it the truth?

Is it fair to all concerned?

Will it build goodwill and better friendships?

Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

THE INVOCATION

For good food, good fellowship and the opportunity to serve through Rotary we give thanks.
