GREG SCHUETZE: REMOTE ABORIGINAL COMMUNITIES

President Elect, Greg Schuetze works as an installer of point of sale equipment for supermarkets and other retailers. His work sometimes takes him to remote parts of the State and other parts of the nation. He addressed the club on his recent trips to Yalata and another settlement south east of Kalgoorlie on the edge of the Victoria Desert (flight to Perth then Kalgoorlie then to Tjuntjuntjara). From Greg's observations it appears that you don't need a lot to be happy. One bit of advice that stuck with Greg was 'Don't take any notice of the axe marks in the shop door'. And why should you.

Although now living hundreds of kilometres apart this was not always the case for the people of Yalata and Tjuntjuntjara, who speak a common language, which is explained below

There are about 160 people living at Tjuntjuntjara. They speak a southern variety of the Pitjantjatjara language. They identify as belonging to a group of people known as pilanguru (meaning "from the spinifex plains"). This group of people are among those that were removed from their homelands in the 1950s and 1960s due to nuclear weapons testing at Woomera Test Range. Most of the people now living at Tjuntjuntjara were previously living at Cundeelee, then a Christian mission, further to the west. Other communities of pilanguru people include Oak Valley and Yalata, over the border in South Australia.^[1]

Anyway, well done Greg; your address stimulated plenty of questions. Greg is seen answering questions below after his address.

NEXT YEAR'S CONFERENCE: MILDURA

Next Year's District Conference will be held at Mildura. Now's the time to start thinking about going.

SUNDAY MARKET

Greg reported that last Sunday's market was a financial success due to a number of factors such as an increase in patrons, beautiful weather, healthy appetites and stall holder paying their future dues. Well done Greg and team.

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of a worthy enterprise and in particular to encourage and foster:

The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service.

High ethical standards in business and professions: the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations: and the dignifying by every Rotarian of their occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

The application of the ideal service by every Rotarian to their personal, business and community life.

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional people united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR WAY TEST

The Four Way Test of the things we think, say or do:

Is it the truth?

Is it fair to all concerned?

Will it build goodwill and better friendships?

Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

THE OPTIONAL INVOCATION

For good food, good fellowship and the opportunity to serve through Rotary we give thanks.
