ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

WELCOME AND APOLOGIES: A Full House.

WHAT'S YOUR FAVOURITE TV SHOW:

Simon's Ice Breaker: 'What's your favourite TV Show?' Many shows were dragged up from the past, but one that seemed to receive universal approval was MaSH.

SIMON'S QUIZ QUESTION

How did the Riverland town of Glossop acquire its name?

The town of Glossop was named after Vice Admiral John Collings Taswell Glossop

Glossop, an Englishman, was given a command in the fledgling Royal Australian Navy's new light cruiser, HMAS Sydney, in June 1913; he had held the RAN rank of Captain since March. Sydney sailed for Australia in company with the new flagship, the battlecruiser HMAS Australia, and received a tumultuous welcome on arrival in Sydney in October.

On 9 November 1914 Sydney was part of a convoy some fifty miles (80km) off the Cocos Islands when the wireless station there reported the presence of a German cruiser. Sydney was detached to investigate. The raider, the light cruiser SMS *Emden, stood out to sea and engaged Sydney at extreme range, killing four sailors and destroying the range-finder before Sydney opened fire. However, Sydney, with the advantage in speed and armament, thereafter, stayed out of Emden's range, reducing her to a blazing shambles.

Emden had cut a swathe of destruction through British and allied shipping in the Indian Ocean and the news of her end was received with jubilation and Glossop was held in high esteem in Australia

Former Prime Minister Paul Keating has always held the view that WWI was a European conflict in which Australia should have never become involved. That may be so, but if Germany had won WWI (and it nearly did) then it may have held hegemony over Australia and New Zealand. Remember, Australia was only handed German New Guinea after WWI. Instead of Democracy we'd possibly have a German Monarchy, but the trade-off would be driving a Mercedes instead of a Morris.

THE MAGILL MARKET SECURED

After our January Market was bumped from Sunday to Saturday to make way for a Bridal Shower, Greg set about locking in the second Sunday of each month with Council for our market at CMO. As it turned out he had to fight off another interloper for February. Well done Greg Proceeds from February's Market will be donated to the Petrinja Earthquake survivors in Croatia.

HAWKER DRAUGHT MUSTER: COMMUNITY EVENT OF THE YEAR

Thanks to the efforts of 4 Rotary Clubs, including our own, the Hawker Draught Muster was awarded the Community Event of the Year –

The event was created to encourage people to gather together a talk to each other and gain support during uncertain times of drought. The event lifted community spirit opened doors for mental health and brought the hawker community together. This event together with the hay drops has helped those hardest hit by the drought and also put information out in the community that there is help out there and how to access it.

Special Thanks to Ian and Suzette Coat, Colin and Pauline Hill and Robyn and Graham Holcroft for their outstanding efforts

PRESIDENT'S THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Before you label someone rude because they ignore you, have you ever considered that they may be chronically shy, or suffer a disability.

Mark Thompson Feb 2021

Footnote: I once helped a man with his luggage on a flight and in return he seemed to ignore me. It was not until he connected an artificial larynx so as to speak with cabin crew that the penny dropped.

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of a worthy enterprise and in particular to encourage and foster:

The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service.

High ethical standards in business and professions: the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations: and the dignifying by every Rotarian of their occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

The application of the ideal service by every Rotarian to their personal, business and community life.

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional people united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR WAY TEST

The Four Way Test of the things we think, say or do:

Is it the truth?

Is it fair to all concerned?

Will it build goodwill and better friendships?

Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

THE OPTIONAL INVOCATION

For good food, good fellowship and the opportunity to serve through Rotary we give thanks.
