KIRSTY'S ALTERNATIVE TO AN MBA

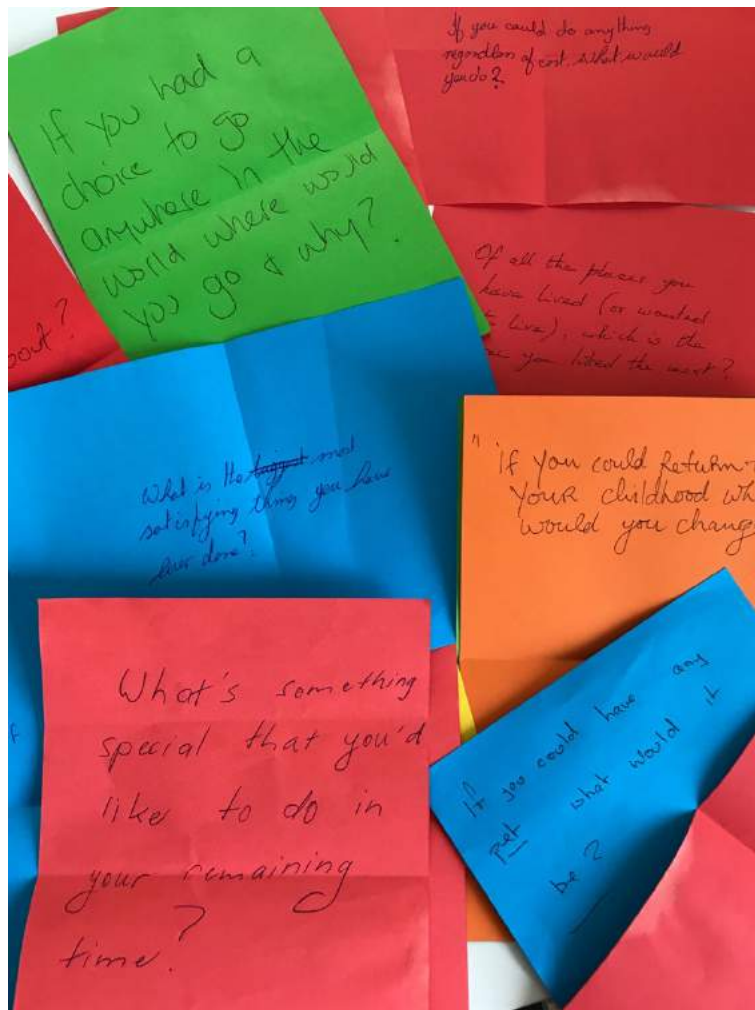

This morning Kirsty Stark spoke to us about the altMBA program (<http://altmba.com>) that she completed as a student, and now coaches other students. The program is run entirely online, via video calls and written submissions, so Kirsty has never met most of the coaches and students she works with in person. This virtual world will change, because at the end of November, she'll be travelling to NYC to meet with 80 other coaches from around the world, as well as Seth Godin (<https://www.sethgodin.com>), the program's designer.

Kirsty then ran an activity that has been used informally to help coaches get to know each other better. We each wrote down two questions on coloured paper, and took turns drawing a question out of the pile and answering it. It was a great way to learn things we didn't know about other club members – such as, whether their favourite meal to cook, the movie they would watch over and over again, the thing they regretted not doing when they had the chance, the moment in life that gave them the most satisfaction, or what they would like to do in their remaining time.

Naturally, this activity created a few laughs, so thank you Kirsty and good luck in the Big Apple.

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of a worthy enterprise and in particular to encourage and foster:

The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service.

High ethical standards in business and professions: the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations: and the dignifying by every Rotarian of their occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

The application of the ideal service by every Rotarian to their personal, business and community life.

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional people united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR WAY TEST

The Four Way Test of the things we think, say or do:

Is it the truth?

Is it fair to all concerned?

Will it build goodwill and better friendships?

Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

THE OPTIONAL INVOCATION

For good food, good fellowship and the opportunity to serve through Rotary we give thanks.
