Welcome & Apologies

Apologies from Bernard, Simon, Greg and Don
Welcome to James Stevens, Ella and Kieran Garrood.

Brewer's Banter

President Simon was on the sick list this morning so Vice President Mark stepped in to take charge of the meeting.

- Welcome to everyone and we acknowledge today is International Women's Day.
- Welcome to our guest visitors, James Stevens, Member for Sturt, Ella Garrood and dad, Kieran.
- Reminder: Market this weekend to raise funds for Polio Plus, and set up on Saturday will be at 3.30pm instead of the usual 2.00pm.

PONDERISMS

Vice President
Mark Thompson

- ❖ Why do peanuts float in a regular coke and sink in a diet coke. Go ahead and try it.
- ❖ I used to eat a lot of natural foods until I learned that most people die of natural causes.
- ❖ How important does a person have to be before they are considered assassinated instead of just murdered?
- ❖ Why do you have to "put your two cents in," but it's only a "penny for your thoughts"? Where's that extra penny going?
- ❖ Once you're in heaven, do you get stuck wearing the clothes you were buried in for eternity?
- ❖ What disease did cured ham actually have?
- ❖ How is it that we put man on the moon before we figured out it would be a good idea to put wheels on luggage?
- ❖ Why is it that people say they "slept like a baby" when babies wake up like every two hours?
- ❖ Why are you IN a movie, but you're ON TV?
- ❖ Why do doctors leave the room while you change? They're going to see you naked anyway.
- ❖ Why is "bra" singular and "panties" plural?
- ❖ If corn oil is made from corn, and vegetable oil is made from vegetables, what is baby oil made from?
- ❖ If electricity comes from electrons, does morality come from morons?
- ❖ Did you ever notice that when you blow in a dog's face, it annoys him, but when you take him for a car ride, he sticks his head out the window?
- ❖ How did the man who made the first clock, know what time it was?

Guest Speaker: JAMES STEVENS MP
Member for Sturt

James Stevens MP with Ella Garrood (SA Youth Parliament Student) and Vice President Mark

What a time for President Simon to ask me at short notice to take over as acting president for our meeting because of his severe back pain. In addition to a guest speaker and 2 other guests we had also scheduled the induction of Peter and Rick into the club.

Dusting off some old induction notes Peter's and Rick's induction went smoothly, apart from unsigned certificates of membership that Simon can attend to later. Welcome Peter and Rick.

It was timely, that Lindsay invited youth parliamentarian Ella Garrood and her dad Kieron because our guest speaker was the Hon James Stevens, member for the Federal seat of Sturt. The erstwhile member for Sturt, Christopher Pyne, had visited our club many times over the years, but this was a first for James.

As a back bencher in his first term in Parliament what could James say without drifting into electioneering, but he did give us his first impressions of Federal Parliament, comparing it to a cruise ship or small village. He was in praise of our club and the works of Rotary International.

He also said that SA was losing its backwater status (my words) and there is a sense of pride and achievement returning to the State.

James hit his straps during 'Question Time' and in particular gave a detailed response to the reasons why the constitution prevents Canberra interfering with the States' management of Covid. We all had a quick refresher on Australia's Colonial era, federalism, currency and taxation. Thanks you James.

And Simon, get well soon.

Cheers

Thommo

A WARM WELCOME TO OUR NEW CLUB MEMBERS

Rick Caldwell, Vice President Mark and Peter Macaulay

It is always exciting to welcome new members into the club and to the Rotary family. This morning PP Mark inducted not one, but two members into our merry band. New members bring renewed energy to a club, and it means we have more hands to serve on committees, work on projects and events, and to raise money to help make this world a better place for all in which to live.

Rick grew up in country SA and Peter in suburban Melbourne, and together they operated the Athelstone Post Office for eight years until recently retiring.

Both have been Rotarians in the past and are keen to pick up again now that they have more time to spare. Peter has accepted the position of Director Community for the incoming Rotary year 2022-23, and Rick will be gainfully employed on the market committee.

Soon they will be jetting off to Europe for a much anticipated holiday. Have fun guys and we will see you on your return – when we will put you to work. Bon Voyage

ARE YOU OUR MISSING PIECE?

Quiz Question

What is the name of the world's largest working cattle station and where is it located?

Answer: Anna Creek Station. South Australia

Anna Creek station is slightly larger than Israel and covers some 23,677 square kilometres or 5,851,000 acres.

Ice Breaker: Due to the fact we inducted Peter and Rick into the club this morning and had a guest speaker there was no time for an Ice Breaker discussion.

DID YOU KNOW?

The organization that holds the highest consultative status given by the United Nations to a non-governmental organization is Rotary International.
