WELCOME

Shouwn Oosting (Guest Speaker), Tara Belton (CEO of the RSL in SA/NT), Meredith Burgess (President Magill RSL); Suzette Coat and Anne Cole (honorary members) and Gerry Butler (Chair, Gums Landcare Group) and Rosemary Cadden (Author and Raconteur).

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

With the help of so many people, today ends a very happy and successful 12 months of club meetings.

"Time flies when you're having fun"

A 'circle of life' was completed today. We start club meetings with an Acknowledgement of Country – and concluded the year's meetings with a deep-dive into the Acknowledgement.

Those meetings consistently mix fun and banter, with a good feed (thanks Leonie & David) and some brilliant stories from local people and organisations – all packed into an hour.

So many people contribute to our meetings – and outside the meetings, continue to deliver magnificent service programs. The Club should be proud of its achievements - from helping Rotary's global push to eradicate polio, to ALL the initiatives supporting our local community. More about that at our Changeover.

For almost 120 years, Rotary International and Rotary Clubs change leaders every year. It encourages new ideas – and provides a new opportunity to create an even more rewarding year.

"Life is a journey, not a destination"

It's been an honour to serve as President and create memories I will cherish forever. Thank you for your support.

Cheers

Lindsay

CHANGEOVER (The changing of the guard)

Sunday 30th June

CREATE HOPE

GUEST SPEAKER: SHOWN OOSTING

This week's guest speaker was Shown Oosting. Simon Brewer's mini bio of Shown is a fitting preamble for his topic, Acknowledgement to Country.

I first met Shown over 20 years ago when our wives became friends through our kids. We soon found we had a shared interest in hifi systems at the time and was invited to check out Shown's impressive setup. At the time I had no idea of his Aboriginal heritage, but later when I was on the Council I happened to find out and promptly asked if he might be interested in joining the Council's Reconciliation Advisory Committee. He applied and started a long association with the Council where he is still Chair of that Committee.

Shown is a Waanyi Garrwa descendant, Garrwa country being around the Gulf country straddling the current day NT & Qld borders, and he has more than 20 years of experience working in federal and state public sectors in Aboriginal affairs.

He has a Bachelor of Laws and Commerce from Adelaide University and was the first ever Indigenous Mace Bearer at that institution. He was admitted as a barrister & solicitor to the Supreme Court of SA and is now an Aboriginal Engagement Consultant.

He serves as a Member of the Board of the South Australian Film Corporation and Country Arts SA. He is also a member of the Governance, Risk & Integrity Committee of the Adelaide Football Club. He's certainly a busy person but we're very glad he has taken time out to speak to us today about the importance of Acknowledgement of Country. Please make him welcome.

Shown spoke of his links to the Northern Territory, just south of the Gulf of Carpentaria, where his mother was one of the stolen generation. Growing up in Adelaide how he had a disconnect with family members there until later in his life. One example of the strong connection between the land and his people was that of aunty who had been unwell and her return to 'country' to recover. Shown used the term sovereign nations to describe the diversity of Aboriginal groups who occupied this land prior to the arrival of white settlement. He said there was no agreement by these groups to forfeit their lands, which he then displayed on the Tindale Map. This map highlights around 250 Aboriginal groups nationally and around 30 in South Australia. Shown said that Acknowledgment of Country was a long-standing practice; the land occupied by the old RAH was an area where Kurna people was used to welcome others visiting Kurna Country. Shown told us that Acknowledgment of Country is a sign of respect and an important part of Reconciliation which also builds relationships. In summary, Shown left us with the following:

- What is Country (what are the traditional customs)
- What is the relationship between traditional custodians and the land
- Learn history
- More than just words (make acknowledge meaningful)

QUIZ QUESTION

As all Rotarians know, this year's Rotary theme is "Create Hope in the World". What is the theme for 2024/2025 and why was the theme chosen?

ANSWER:

The theme emphasizes the transformative power of Rotary international's work in communities around the world.

THE MARKET COMMUNITY:

A massive THANK YOU to all our members, volunteers, stallholders and supporters who have worked together over the past year to make the Magill Sunrise Market an increasingly successful community event.

Each month proceeds from our market go to a nominated charity or worthwhile cause. So apart from having a great day out – everyone plays a part in helping make a difference to those in need.

Many stallholders recently commented about the Magill Sunrise Market being so well organised, with such a friendly atmosphere and awesome volunteers!

Our friends at the Repair Café also deserve a special mention. The Repair Cafe complements our Magill Sunrise Market so well and provides a valuable community service and mutually beneficial opportunity for our market patrons.

A stitch in time for our own banners.

Being out in the community at events like this, helps spread the word about the valuable work done across the world in Rotary Clubs like ours. And if you haven't noticed, we have fun in the process. Why not join us?
